

PATHWAY TO SERVICES WEBINAR SERIES

The California Labor and Workforce Development Agency is pleased to announce a webinar series aimed at identifying and connecting available federal and state services for immigrants and refugees. This webinar series will focus on serving the immigrant and refugee communities who may not possess the appropriate documentation to access all employment and training services, yet may be eligible for services through other program partners.

The first webinar, Immigrants and Workforce: Pathway to Services 101, will be held on September 25, 2018, and will include a presentation by the National Skills Coalition on obligations and opportunities in serving the immigrant community. The Employment Development Department will also provide an overview of Workforce Services Directive WSD18-03, Pathway to Services, Referral and Enrollment, and answer questions on the new policy.

The webinar series is designed to further assist Local Workforce Development Areas and America's Job Center of California<sup>SM</sup> staff implement Pathway to Services, Referral and Enrollment (WSD18-03).

Registration and more information about the Immigrants and Workforce: Pathway to Services 101 webinar is available on the California Workforce Development Board's English Language Learners Immigration Initiatives web page. Information on future webinars in the series will also be announced on this web page.
