

2019 BUILDING WORKFORCE PARTNERSHIPS CONFERENCE

The California Labor Federation's Workforce and Economic Development Program is hosting the 2019 Building Workforce Partnerships Conference, March 5-7, 2019, at the Hilton San Diego Resort & Spa.

The conference will host a series of workshops that will feature various topics such as:

- How technology and data is being used to increase Rapid Response outreach efforts.
- Partnering with economic development and education partners to provide business solutions.
- Effective pre-apprenticeship and apprenticeship programs.
- Business engagement vs. job development.
- Working with hard-to-serve populations and businesses.

Local Workforce Development Board (Local Board) directors, members, and staff, as well as America's Job Center of CaliforniaSM partners and Business Engagement/Rapid Response practitioners are strongly encouraged to attend. Registration information can be found on the California Labor Federation's Workforce Partnerships webpage. Hotel accommodations can be reserved via Hilton San Diego Resort & Spa or by calling the hotel directly at 619- 276-4010 and requesting the Building Workforce Partnerships Conference room rate.

A limited number of scholarships are available to cover the registration fee for Local Board members who need assistance sending all relevant staff to the conference. To request assistance, or for general questions, contact Nica Constante at nconstante@calaborfed.org or 510-591-1953, or Casey Gallagher at cgallagher@calaborfed.org or 510-333-6516.
